TEACHING AND LEARNING

Continuum of Teaching and Learning Service Options

Shared Curriculum and Instruction Services

- An Education Consultant works with a shared group of districts and schools to provide tailored on-site support about curriculum and instruction to improve student outcomes.

Teaching & Learning Collaborative

- An Education Consultant works with a shared collaborative of districts and schools to improve instructional practices and support school staff with improving teaching and learning.

Regional Structured Literacy Services

- An Education Consultant/Literacy Specialist provides professional learning, team development and system support to effectively implement and sustain evidence-based literacy practices and programs.

Customized Curriculum and Instruction Support Services

- An Education Consultant provides tailored curriculum and instruction, and on-site training, guidance and implementation support, after conducting a team self-study to set priorities and create an implementation plan to support your team's improvement efforts.

Instructional Coaching Implementation and Support

- Our team offers high-quality, evidence-based training for instructional coaching using the New Teacher Center model. This training helps instructional coaches support both new and tenured teachers in improving student achievement, elevating instructional practice and increasing educator effectiveness.

Professional Learning

- Our team offers a wide variety of professional learning topics and several different methods of delivery. Contact us for more information.
