JANUARY 26, 2017

PRESENTER: TEMPLE WHITE, MS, ED, BCBS ~ SWWC

This workshop will provide:

*What is Everyday BehaviorTools™ and Why should I Attend?

The Professional Crisis Management Association (PCMA) created a curriculum and training based on research and the principles of Applied Behavior Analysis that focuses on using positive behavior supports to train staff working with individuals with disabilities on how to prevent and minimize behavior problems that may lead to the use of physical crisis management interventions.

The Everyday BehaviorTools™ course is offered as a full two-day course that focuses on a) identifying and minimizing punishing and coercive situations, b) developing relationships with consumers/students, c) using reinforcement to increase skills, c) identifying and minimizing “junk” behavior, d) setting student/consumer expectations, e) creating and implementing a behavior contract, and f) identifying replacement behaviors. This course is recommended for everyone.
