

BEHAVIORAL HEALTH SERVICES

Our Team

Melissa Andree, MS, BCBA
Hazel Ashbeck, MS, BCBA
Sara Athman, MS, BCBA
Amanda Barton, Ed.S., NCSP, BCBA
Robert Beringer, MA, EdS, BCBA
Jennifer Bozosi, MS, BCBA
Jason Dybsetter, MA, BCBA
Joe Fette, MS, BCBA
Ana Guenther, MS, BCBA
Hayley Hansen, M.Ed., BCBA
Trista Knudson, MS, BCBA
Sarah Kreuter, BS, BCaBA
Sara Snow, MS, BCBA
Marissa Stordahl, MS, BCBA
Kari Tschida, MS, BCBA
Michelle Whitcomb-Johnson, BS, ABS

Amber Bruns

Clinical Director of Behavioral Health Services
MS, BCBA
amber.bruns@swwc.org

Behavior Analytic Services

Our team consults with school professionals on the behavior of individual students and classrooms as a whole. We strive to increase academic performance and manage challenging behaviors for students of all ages across the Midwest.

Services Offered

- Provides schools-wide and classroom specific support
- Provides consultation
- Assists in teaching skills to students and staff
- Assists with implementing behavior strategies
- Assists in creating positive behavior support plans
- Assists in conducting functional behavior assessments
- Assists in developing efficient and effective data collection systems
- Assists in assessing and analyzing a student's current skill set
- Provides individual and group trainings/workshops

Workshops/Trainings Offered

- Functional Behavior Assessment and Behavior Intervention Plan Development
- Discrete-Trial Training
- Data Collection
- Developing Effective Classroom Management Systems
- Effective Prompting Procedures
- Proactive Strategies to Decrease Challenging Behavior
- How to Teach Skills (social, functional, academic, etc.)
- Everyday Behavior Tools
- Tips & Tricks for Paraprofessionals

What is Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA)?

ABA is the science of human behavior based on the following concepts:

- Systematic approach to behavior change
- Use of evidence based interventions
- Promote independence by teaching functional and socially significant skills
- Data driven decision making

What Can ABA Be Used For?

- Decrease challenging behaviors
- Increase skills such as academics, communication, self-care skills, functional skills, etc.
- Implement preventative and proactive strategies school-wide
 - Prevention of challenging behavior
 - Clear Rules and Expectations
 - Increase predictability
 - Opportunities to Respond
 - And more!
 - Priming Statements
 - Practice scenarios to deliver feedback
- Develop reinforcement systems to promote classroom engagement & positive behavior
 - Token Systems, Level Systems, Point Systems
 - Individualized reinforcement systems
 - Classroom reinforcement systems
- Develop efficient and effective classroom management systems
- Train educators, paraprofessionals and professional staff

Other Behavioral Health Services

Mental Health Services

Positive Behavior Interventions and Supports (PBIS)

The READY Clinic (Early Intervention)

Scan to visit our website
and learn more!

 Find us on Facebook

[www.facebook.com/
SWWCBehaviorServices](https://www.facebook.com/SWWCBehaviorServices)