

SWWC's 35th Annual School Business Conference

SWWC's 35th Annual School Business Conference was held on April 11 at Southwest Minnesota State University in Marshall. Over 180 people from the following school districts across southwest and west central Minnesota attended: Adrian, ACGC, Benson, BOLD, BLHS, Canby, Cedar Mountain, Dawson-Boyd, ECHO Charter, Edgerton, Ellsworth, Fulda, GFW, Glencoe-Silver Lake, Hendricks, Heron Lake-Okabena, Hills-Beaver Creek, Hutchinson, JCC, KMS, LqPV, Lakeview, Lynd, MACCRAY, Marshall, Milroy, Minneota, MRVED, Montevideo, Mountain Lake, MCC, New London-Spicer, Ortonville, Pipestone Area, Redwood Area, Renville County West, Round Lake-Brewster, RTR, Springfield, SWWC, Tracy, Wabasso, WWG, Willmar, Windom and Worthington.

Forty-two breakout sessions were held on topics including special education finance, special education funding formulas, Minnesota Automated Reporting Student System (MARSS), special education fiscal monitoring, Public Employee Retirement Association (PERA), school district audits, Postsecondary Enrollment Options (PSEO) reporting, online learning, cybersecurity, Google Drive and more.

Several SWWC staff were presenters, including Dion Caron, Mike Carter, Kara Damm, Mary Jo Henkel, Dellynn Monson, Abby Polzine, Barb Raske, Kori Ryan, Elizabeth Sullivan and Bethany Victor. Other presenters represented the Minnesota Department of Education, School Specialty, Teachers Retirement Association (TRA), JMC Inc., TimeClock Plus, Hoffman and Brobst and PERA.

Four vendors were on-site to talk with conference attendees: Cooperative Purchasing Connection, Hiller Commercial Floors, ICS Consulting and School Specialty.

For more information about the Annual School Business Conference and/or services provided by SWWC, visit www.swsc.org/rmic.

SWWC's RMIC Staff