Newscaster Reading

Objective: To increase fluency and prosody for students
  • who have difficulty with phrasing and expression
  • who benefit from repeated modeling to increase accuracy

Materials: Short texts

Sequence:

1. Explain: The first time this intervention is practiced with a student, the Interventionist will explain how newscasters on television do not have the news memorized. They need to be able to read from a television screen off camera but make it seem like they are just talking. They need to read well and with good expression to keep the audience’s attention.

2. Explain: Each session, Interventionist says, “Today we will be reading as if we were newscasters reading the evening news.”

3. First Reading - Have the student read a paragraph or a few sentences aloud. Interventionist provides immediate standard error corrections. (“That word is _______. What word?” The student repeats the word. Interventionist says, “Yes. That word is _______.“ Student goes back to the beginning of the sentence to begin again.)

4. Second through Fourth Readings - Interventionist then reads the same passage aloud with his/her best expression while the student tracks. (Important for student to have eyes and finger on page following along actively – not just listening). Interventionist says, “I will read the passage now as if I were the newscaster. Your job will be to follow along and track as I read. I will do this three times.” Read the passage. Then say, “Back to the top” and repeat twice more for a total of three readings. Interventionist models good expression, and a reading pace that is only slightly faster than the reading pace the student demonstrated in the first reading.

5. Fifth through Seventh Readings – Interventionist and student read the same passage again together, as the student tries to match his/her voice to the Interventionist’s voice. Do this three times also. Interventionist says, “Now we will read the passage together. You will try to match my voice and my speed. If the student does not read in sync with the Interventionist, the Interventionist corrects by saying “keep your voice with mine”, and backing up to the beginning of the current sentence.

6. Eighth Reading – Student reads the passage alone with best prosody. Interventionist provides immediate error correction procedure for any errors made.

What If I Don’t See Progress?

1. Have sessions been regular and frequent?
2. Has there been sufficient praise?
3. Are the error correction procedures being delivered correctly and consistently?
4. If the student’s error increase across readings (for instance if they think they have the passage memorized and aren’t attending to the text) try the following:
   a. begin a new passage (or farther down the page)
   b. try a slightly longer passage
   c. provide motivator for error free reading
